

Are You Ready to Lead?

1 If you're not always training, you'll never make the team.

Many people believe that when they are finally placed in a leadership role, then they can become a leader. But training as a leader is something you can do regardless of your position. Leadership is about helping those around you get better, and it doesn't matter if you are in charge of them or not.

2 It's the little things.

Successful leaders are focused on the daily things that make them better and have impact on others around them. If they are only leading when the spotlight is on, chances are, it won't shine on them for very long.

3 Lead yourself first.

Doing anything great, at least in a sustainable way, starts with becoming a person who is capable of great things. Real leaders understand that most of the effort has to be placed in making themselves better, so that they can lead others more effectively.
